NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!

No more Smoke!—No more Grease!

No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—Is less in danger!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 9th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agents. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, APRIL 2, 1870.

THIRST FOR BLOOD.

The Governor's son, Joe, editor of the Standard, has, upon various occasions, manifested great solicitude and anxiety for our blood, both in public and in private.

In his paper of yesterday he says, "we hope that he," (the editor of the SENTINEL,) "will yet swing in Wake county jail-yard."

Without vain boasting, we tell the Governor's son, that we are no more alarmed at this expression of his hopes, than we were at his demonstrations in Davie street, when he made an attempt to take our life, backed by Pike, Farriss, Bosher, Jenkins, Menninger, Cebe and his son.

We are no more alarmed by this expressed hope of his, than we were when a respectable member of his party sent us word that he, (Joe,) had threatened to shoot us on sight.

We are no more alarmed by this expression of his hopes than we were when his bosom friend, Estes, publicly proclaimed that "any man who would shoot Joe Turner in the back could get a pardon in five minutes, or, it might be, could have it in his pocket before committing the act."

We are no more alarmed at this expression of the son's hopes, than we were when the father in the City Hall, defying the Court, tried to stir up the mob to violence by his speech, until the Chief of Police cocked his pistol, and threatened to shoot down the first man who should break the peace in the presence of the Court.

We are no more alarmed by this expression of Joe's bloody hopes, than we were when told that Dave Jenkins and his 1st son were walking the streets, club in hand, threatening us because we had said, Dave was no more fit for Treasurer than a hen was to catch a hawk.

We are no more alarmed than when Moore of Chowan fell down at us, on Fayetteville street.

Nor than we were when Joe said, if we had shot Col. Moore, he would have killed us in five minutes.

We are not near as much alarmed as we were when some member of the Governor's secret, oath-bound league attempted to assassinate, by firing up at us, at midnight, through the window of our room.

Joseph has told us what his hope is, and from this we may judge what his sorrows and disappointments are at the various failures to get our blood.

We may judge he is sorry that his friend Pike did not kill us, while standing with his pistol cocked in his pocket, in Davie street, waiting for him, (Joe) to advance.

And sorry that the assassin's bullet failed of its mark, when fired at us through the window.

And that he was sorry his friend, Col. Moore, fell down in the passage, on Fayetteville street, before he could shoot us.

And sorry that his father failed to get up sufficient excitement to have us murdered by the mob at the Mayor's Court.

The only effect the publicly expressed hope of the Governor's son, Joe, to see us hanged in the Wake county jail yard, will be to induce us to take out another ten thousand dollar policy on our life.

Now, we have no desire to see the Governor's son, Joe, hung, however much he may deserve it; and we know he could not be hung, under the present administration, even should he succeed in carrying out his desires in regard to us.

We are well convinced, from demonstrations made by the Governor before the mob in the City Hall, that he could induce his secret, oath-bound association to hang us in the jail yard, which is not forty steps from our office door, any day he might give the word, yet we tell him, that though his administration is fast sinking under the weight of its own corruption, we are not to be driven from our purpose to hold it up to the merited contempt and scorn of all honest men, by any threats or hopes of his son, Joseph William, nor by his organ under the new name of Wm. A. Smith & Co.

THE STATE PRESS ON THE LEGISLATIVE ADDRESS.

The Address of the Conservative and Democratic members of the General Assembly, recently issued, contrasts so forcibly in tone, temper and policy, with that issued by the Radical members at the close of the special session of 1868, that the most casual observer, who has read, or may read both, cannot fail to be most favorably impressed in regard to the former.

This Address, which will be distributed throughout the State, has met the hearty approval and endorsation of the entire anti Radical Press of the State. We have already noticed the favorable remarks of the Wilmington Journal and Roanoke News on the Address, and we now add extracts of what is said of it by others of our State exchanges:

The Conservative members of the Legislature prepared before adjournment, an able and eloquent Address to the people of the State. They also appointed a Central Committee, and a Committee for each Congressional District.—Southern Home, Charlotte.

The Old North State publishes the Address, and commenting on it says, "We invite a careful perusal of the address referred to. It is an able, well written, loyal and patriotic paper, which challenges the scrutiny even of its bitterest opponents.—It lays down a liberal conservative platform upon which all the opponents of radicalism can stand without the slightest sacrifice of principle. It makes no allusion to national politics whatever. It accepts the situation unequivocally and without reservation. It gives every assurance to the colored citizen that his civil and political rights shall be respected and maintained, and that his intellectual and moral culture shall not be neglected. But above all it denounces in a proper manner secret societies and the outrages that have been, or are supposed to have been committed by them. It inculcates obedience to law in all things, and points out how crimes should be punished and wrongs avenged. It very justly declares "that the man who upon his own impulse, or in obedience to the mandates of others, seeks to punish crime without due course of law, himself becomes a criminal."

The Western Sentinel says: We publish this week an address by the Conservative members of the Legislature to the people of North Carolina. It is able, dignified and truly Conservative, and we hope it will be read and circulated extensively.

The Goldsboro' Messenger also publishes the Address and speaks of it as follows:

"This able, judicious and important document will be found on the first page of this paper. It is deemed almost useless for us to advise or urge the general and careful perusal of it by the people. Any plan, we should think, which proposes to show them the way of relief from the harrassing net-work of difficulties and onerous burdens that Radical dishonesty and abuse of power has thrown around them, would be eagerly sought after and read with avidity by every one." * * *

The latter part of the Address presents a plan of organization and a system of canvassing which, if generally adopted and vigorously prosecuted, cannot and will not, we believe, fail to reward the true friends of our noble and venerated old mother State with a glorious and redeeming triumph.

The Henderson Index endorses the Address; it says: The Legislative Address to which we yield nearly all of our space, is an able, well-timed, liberal and patriotic paper. Whatever differences there may have heretofore existed between the papers and leaders of the opposition, will be amicably adjusted by a common endorsement of this Address.

Some of our exchanges, for the last two or three days, have been misplaced, or taken from our table; and among them may have been some whose notices of the Address have possibly escaped us.

It is a noticeable fact that the principles and policy laid down in this able document have not been assailed by a single Radical or Republican paper in the State. The Standard of Thursday, did all it could to assail it, but could do no more than "want to know," something in regard to the time when, and the manner how, the opponents of Radicalism, corruption and extravagance, happened to adopt such an admirable, just and popular plan to bring back the good old ship of State from the whirlpools and breakers into which she had been run by the Radical misrule and ignorance to the calm, smoothe waters of peace and prosperity.

JUDGE WATTS AND THE RAIL-ROAD BONDS.

We expect to publish, eventually, all the testimony in relation to Railroad matters, elicited by the Bragg Committee, and ordered by the Senate to be printed.

The testimony of Judge Watts, which we lay before our readers to-day, shows his own guilt in the affair of the Kehoe injunction case, and this is made more apparent by the evidence of Tim Lee, the Sheriff, extracts from which we republish, in connection with the testimony of Judge Watts, that the people may see how they agree about that loan of two thousand dollars.

RALEIGH, March 11, 1870.

Examination of Saml. W. Watts, who says:

Question. We learn from our investigations that five bonds of the State of North Carolina, and issued to the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad Company, came to your possession; please state whether such was the fact, and, if so, of whom the said bonds were received, and on what account, how, and when?

Answer. About the last of November, 1868, I was desirous of making a residence for myself and family at Franklinton. I had not money to spare to pay for it; I applied to Gen. Littlefield for the loan of it; he promised to let me have it but failed to do so. I was speaking of the matter in the presence of J. T. Deweese, who said I might make the purchase and he would let me have the money; the sum I wanted was $2,000. I told him if he would do so, I would insure my life for that sum and would turn over two of my certificates for my salary for each year, until the sum was paid, which was to be paid in one and two years. I accordingly bought the place in May 1869, and have until January 1871, to make all the payments. The title was reserved until all the purchase money was paid. I wrote to Mr. Deweese about the purchase, and reminded him that he had promised to advance me money to make the payment. I did not hear from him in reply. Some time after, I think in the month of July, I saw Mr. Deweese in Salisbury; I mentioned the matter again to him, and, besides pledging my life policy, told him I was willing to convey my interest in the land, by way of mortgage, to secure him. He again promised to let me have the money. About the second week in September, 1869, say from the 7th to the 10th of that month, I saw Mr. Deweese passing Franklinton in the cars. I had, a few days before, received a note from T. F. Lee, asking me to come to Raleigh, saying he had some business with me, or something of interest to me, he did not say what. I wrote him I could not come, owing to the condition of a member of my family. I think I said to him, "If I have any matter of interest there, attend to it for me." He had before attended to other little matters for me. When I saw Mr. Deweese, as I have above stated, I inquired of him about the money. He said it was all arranged. I told him I needed money in order to get possession, a tenant of my vendor being in possession, and I could get it by purchasing his crop. Mr. Deweese told me if I would call on Col. Haywood I could get it. On my way, next week, to Johnston Court, I put up at Raleigh over night. I called at the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court the afternoon I got to Raleigh, to deliver some Judgments and papers. I saw Mr. Lee at the Court House and stepped into his office with him. While there, he opened his safe and laid on the table a large envelope, saying, "here is a package for you from Col. Deweese, which Col. Haywood handed to me." I asked him what it was, (I thought it was money.)—He said they were North Carolina bonds; my impression is he said they were five; I did not see the bonds, and therefore can't say, of my own knowledge, whether they were a part of those issued to the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad Company, or not. We had a mere conversation about bonds. I told him I knew nothing of their value, nor did I know how to settle with Deweese. Lee said he was going to New York, and would take the bonds there and sell them. I told him to do as he pleased about it. I have never realized anything from the bonds, or ever seen them since.—Mr. Lee said the House in whose hands they were placed for sale had failed, and that he had got nothing for them. I will further state that, in the Summer of 1868, I had loaned Deweese, while canvassing for Congress, the sum of $400—he owed, and yet owes me that money, except about $25 which he paid. I have not, since the said bonds were shown to me by T. F. Lee, seen Mr. Deweese, to the best of my recollection, nor have I had any settlement with him. Unconnection, I think Mr. Deweese afterwards paid me some more money, but the amount I can not now state. He also paid my bill at the Hotel in Salisbury at the time before spoken of by me. The foregoing is all that I know as to the said bonds.

S. W. WATTS.

Sworn to and subscribed before the Commission.

THOMAS BRAGG, Chairman.

The above is, of itself, a mighty lame story. Now hear what Timothy says in relation to some points testified to above:

When asked by the Commission if he had ever had any other of the bonds in his possession than the ten he "found" directed to him on Littlefield's bureau, he said—

I did have five other of said bonds in my possession in Raleigh some eight or ten days after the settlement of the suit to which I have referred. They were placed in my hands to negotiate them for sale.

Question.—How did these bonds come into your hands; from whom, as whose property, and what was done with them?

Answer.—I received a note from Judge Samuel W. Watts, saying that Col. Deweese was in his debt $2,000, or words about to that effect, and that he, Deweese, had left word with Col. Haywood to turn over to him five of the bonds and directing me to get them from Col. Haywood, and negotiate their sale for them. I either saw Col. Haywood in person, or wrote him a note, I don't remember which. He sent me the bonds next day after I received the note by Judge Watts. They were placed with others in the banking House of Fuller, Treat & Cox, for sale. As I have stated, they failed and nothing has been realized from their sale.

Now, read what Judge Watts says about getting the bonds, and what Timothy says on the same subject, and reconcile the two statements who can. Remember, at the same time, that Judge Watts came on through Raleigh and got the bonds just about the time the injunction was compromised.

A FABLE WITH A MORAL.

THE THIEF AND THE DOG.

One of Æsop's instructive fables reads as follows:

"A Thief, coming to rob a house, would have stopped the barking of a dog by throwing sops to him. 'Away with you,' said the dog, 'I had my suspicions of you before, but this excess of civility assures me that you are a rogue.'"

There is a moral in this fable that we recommend to the careful consideration of Tim Lee. When Littlefield threw the sop to him, in the shape of $10,000 in bonds, for which Tim had rendered no adequate service, he should have imitated the sensible dog of the fable and said, "Away with you! I had my suspicion of you before, but this excess of civility assures me that you are a rogue."

We take the following from the special Washington telegrams of the Richmond Dispatch of the 30th ult:

An alleged attempt at bribery of a Government official in this city has just come to light. A handsome bouquet of flowers was sent to Mrs. George B. McCartee, wife of the Chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, at the Ebbitt House. A piece of paper containing $1,700 was placed in the basket. Mr. McCartee handed the money to Secretary Boutwell, who placed it in his safe, and upon investigation it was discovered that a German had sold the basket of flowers to three gentlemen, at Willard's Hotel, the night the basket was sent to the Ebbit House. The German was brought before the Secretary, and stated pretty clearly to whom he had sold the flowers. Two of these gentlemen were officers of the Bank-Note Company of New York. Secretary Boutwell sent for one of these parties, who acknowledged that he was aware of the floral present. It is understood several members of Congress were informed of the matter, who intimated their intention to thoroughly investigate the case in Congress.

WONDERFUL DISCOVERY.

A BOX OF COINS AND VALUABLE ORNAMENTS, SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN BURIED BY DE SOTO, FOUND NEAR NATCHEZ, MISS.—GREAT VALUE OF THE TREASURE.

[From the Natchez New South.]

Many of our readers will no doubt remember the great excitement which existed about a year ago in this vicinity, caused by the assertion of an old negro sorceress that a quantity of the treasure of the once celebrated Capt. Kidd was buried at a short distance from the National Cemetery, near what is familiarly known as the "Devil's Punch Bowl." Quite a number of our colored citizens, believing the stories of this old woman, engaged in the work of digging for the hidden treasure in a spot in which, by the aid of the black art, she had pronounced it to be buried.

They progressed in their "labor of love" (of gain) for a number of weeks without success, and finally gave up in despair, a heavy rain having discommoded them to a discouraging extent. Time passed on, and the event has perhaps escaped the minds of nearly all to whom the mysterious affair was cognizant, and but for the event which we are about to chronicle, would perhaps have never disturbed their brains again. However, we will on to our story, which is as strange as it is true.

Shortly after a heavy storm a few weeks ago, a couple of negro boys, while hunting in the vicinity of the excavations made by the discomfited treasure seekers of one year since, chanced to find a dingy, rusty old square box, which was so bound about with metal as to almost resemble an iron box. It was with difficulty that the two combined could move it, and to carry it was out of the question.

While one of them remained near this queer looking old box, the other went home for his father. The father, his wife, and another colored man repaired to the spot, and remembering the old sorceress' tale, at once concluded they had found at least a portion of the treasure. Events have proved that they were not amiss in their conjectures. But they moved very cautiously in the matter lest they should be discovered, and so under cover of night the box was removed to their little cottage. Up to the early part of this week they confined their secret to the living person, but a serious affair having occurred between the boys (being at first but vaguely hinted at) came to the ears of our reporter. He repaired to the house on Wednesday night for the purpose of examing the treasure found. The box in which it was found is about three feet long by two feet wide, evidently made of a species of cedar and is firmly bound by strips of iron running around laterally and diagonally, and fastened with long nails clinched inside. The treasure consists principally of ancient Spanish gold and silver coin, dated from 1450 to 1530, and it is adjudged that there is at least $30,000 worth of them. Besides the coin there are several gold buckles and various other articles, seemingly to have been worn as ornaments. A great number of silver ornaments were in the box, which it appeared were used as some part of their sword trappings.

It is impossible to tell what metal any of the coins or ornaments are composed of by their looks, for all have a mouldy, green appearance, fully attesting the lapse of time since they were buried. A little golden cross with an image of our Saviour, establishes the religion of the people who buried the treasure, and from the date of the various coins it is believed that the treasure thus unearthed at this late day was buried by none other than the great Hernando De Soto and his followers about the year 1480, as it is well known that the discoverer of the mighty Mississippi was in this vicinity about that time, and also that he was seriously troubled by the hostile Indians.

A piece of parchment found in the box was so old and rusty that no characters could be discovered upon it. As a whole, the discovery of this long hidden treasure forms no inconsiderable event in our history, and will throw a new light upon the adventures of the hardy Spaniards who frequented the spot where now stands our beautiful city, centuries ago. A number of individuals have visited the hut and examined the coins, and all agree with the views of the writer as to whom the treasure was buried by.

A prominent gentleman has bargained for the box and its contents with a view of removing them to New York where the coins will bring a large price from antiquaries.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE CO.
TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

AT the request of General Jno. B. Gordon, President Atlanta Department, I have come to your State to bring prominently before you the claims and merits of the Southern Life Insurance Company. It is under the control of as honorable and as responsible men as there are in the land. It is managed in the most prudent and economical manner and will deal justly and fairly with all.

We have no war to make upon other Insurance Companies, but we do wish to impress upon the people the importance of keeping their money at home. By careful calculation it is estimated that a sum of not less than twelve millions (annually) is sent from the South to the North for Life Insurance and unless checked will surely prove suicidal to our interests. We ask you to consider how greatly the material interest of this section would be benefitted by the retention of these enormous sums in our midst.

We send no money away to enrich foreign capitalists but every dollar of premium (less expenses) is INVESTED IN THE STATE FROM WHICH IT IS DERIVED.

This department of the Company has operated both in Georgia and South Carolina, and has done an unprecedentedly large business. Some of the most prominent gentlemen in these States are identified with its interest. Its Board of Directors embrace the names of the ablest financiers, and most successful business men in the South. They are the Trustees of the sacred fund of the widow and orphan. Will you not trust your friends and neighbors; or is it more secure in the hands of a rangers? We appeal to you to assist us in pushing forward this deservedly popular and reliable Southern corporation. Its solvency is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in the United States, its ratio of assets to liabilities the only true test of a Company's strength, fully sustaining this statement.—We would respectfully call attention to the Board of Directors and Stockholders, published in another column, and to our Board of Reference in this State and others.

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertilizer. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudice produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

H. Leberman, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the product much in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer."

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

SATURDAY, APRIL 2, 1870.

Thos. S. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

The ordinance of baptism will be administered in the Baptist Church to-morrow night.

Auction To-Day.—Final closing out of Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Hats, &c. at auction to-day, commencing 10 o'clock, A. M. at M. Rausbaum's No. 16, Fayetteville St.

Fish.—Jimmy Lewis will have a supply of fine fresh fish at his stand, opposite the Post Office, this morning.

Hung.—A special dispatch to the Sentinel, from Hillsboro' dated yesterday afternoon, says: "Young and Gunn, the murderers of Blalock, were hung in jail to day at 2 o'clock, P. M. There was a considerable crowd in attendance. Everything passed off quietly.

Fire Engine.—We learn that the new steam engine for the Rescue Fire Company, No. 1, arrived at the Depot, last night, and is a splendid piece of machinery. Now the Company must have a blow-out and show their fine new engine around—but we advise them to shun Fayetteville street, just about this time.

Grand Enterprise.—The Legislature, at its recent session, incorporated the North Carolina Masonic Temple Association, a Company organized for the purpose of erecting, on some eligible site in this city, a mammoth building for various public uses, among them a Masonic Hall, and, perhaps, Halls for other benevolent societies. It is not, as its name might lead one to suppose, exclusively a Masonic enterprise, but a joint stock Company that may be participated in by any and all persons who are desirous of taking stock in it.

The plan is to raise a capital of $150,000, by subscriptions of shares of $25 each, to purchase a site, erect the building, the profits arising from which will go as dividends to the stockholders. A very eligible site, it is thought, can be procured in a desirable quarter of the city.

A meeting of the corporators was held on Thursday night, at Masonic Hall, at which a partial organization was effected by the election of Col. W. E. Anderson, President; P. A. Wiley, Esq., Treasurer; J. C. L. Harris, Esq., Recording Secretary; J. B. Neathery, Esq., Corresponding Secretary, and Messrs. H. T. Clawson, W. J. Hicks and W. G. Upchurch, Directors. A Vice President and two more Directors are to be elected at a future meeting.

We would again direct attention to the announcement of the opening of Books of Subscription, at Raleigh and at various other points in the State, for receiving subscription of stock in the Raleigh Bank Company.

This enterprise presents an excellent opportunity for investment to those having sums to dispose of and for persons desirous of making permanent investment of money where it will return remunerative dividends.

Hollywood Memorial Association.—We published yesterday, an Address of the Hollywood Memorial Association, of Virginia to the people of the Southern States, and intended to call attention to it editorially, but inadvertently neglected to do so.

The Address appeals directly to the best and holiest feelings and memories of every Southern man, woman and child, who had a relative (and who had not?) in the bloody strife from Richmond to Gettysburg.

We ask our readers to return to, and read the Address again. North Carolina has as many holy associations connected with the bloody struggle in Virginia as any other Southern State, notwithstanding the apparent ignoring of our State in the Address, which is not even mentioned, which fact, however, we are disposed to charge to inadvertence rather than intention. The designs of the Association are worthy of the commendation and co-operation of all who love and cherish the memory of the men whose bones bleach upon the hills and in the valleys of Northern Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania.

Memorial Association.—The annual meeting of this Association will be held in the Session Room of the Presbyterian Church, on Monday the 4th inst., at 4 o'clock P. M.

Payment of Insurance.—The following acknowledgement of the receipt of the full amount of an insurance policy issued to Mr. D. J. Ramsay, of Beaufort, is another evidence of the propriety of making that sort of provision for the protection of one's family in case of death. The Ætna has paid to the representatives of various families in this State, within the last three years, one hundred and fifty-three thousand dollars:

Beaufort, N. C., March 28th, 1870.

Mr. C. Lowenberg, Local Agent

for "Ætna" Life Ins. Co., Hartford, Conn.:—Through W. H. Crow, General Agent, Raleigh, N. C., I have to acknowledge the receipt of $10,000.00 for Policy No. 36,606, held by Mr. David J. Ramsey, deceased, in the Ætna Company, and with pleasure recommend you to the community at large as an efficient Agent, as well as your excellent company for their prompt payment of claims against them.

Yours respectfully,

WM. B. DUNCAN, Adm'r.
of D. J. Ramsey, dec'd.

April 1 2w.

Above Suspicion.—A number of the most prominent and influential citizens of the noble old commonwealth of Kentucky have united together to from and recommend to the people at large for patronage, a very attractive Prize Scheme; and we are glad to be able to say that the inducements are so great, and the security for the faithful performance of all promises so strong, that it places the whole thing entirely suspicion. We will be happy to furnish any of our friends information on the subject or to aid them in securing tickets.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

A New Discovery!!

Phalon's

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

Phalon's "Vitalia" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

The Vitalia is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

Do not Insure Your Life

UNTIL YOU ASCERTAIN FROM

P. F. PESCUD,

General Agent for North Carolina,

WHY THE

National Life Insurance Company,

OF THE

can, and does issue a larger Policy for less money than any other Company, represented in North Carolina.

The National was organized in August 1868. She has issued nearly

10,000 POLICIES,

HAS A CASH CAPITAL OF

$1,000,000,

which was all paid in before a Policy was issued and which has already increased, fifty per cent. All the losses reported to 1st Jan'y last amounted to but $40,000, and as a further evidence of the great care observed in the selection of risks, 934 applications amounting to nearly $3,000,000, were rejected last year. Therefore a solid basis and inducements that none but Stock Companies can afford, is enjoyed by all who prefer the National to Mutual or mixed Companies.

ALL LIABILITY FOR LOSSES IS AVOIDED.

Every man who has a family, should try to create an Estate for their support, when he is taken from them by death—and a very small annuity spent for a Policy secures a larger amount of Cash Assets, and is far more certain, than the same amount will secure in any other investment, and a more tender expression of love and responsibility could not in any other way be more beautifully expressed.

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit,

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES H. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

Its Policies are liberal; its premiums moderate and made easy; its losses are paid promptly and its investments are made on the most solid basis, being principally in improved real estate worth twice the amount invested, paying ten per cent per annum.

All its Policies are non-forfeitable and all participate in its profits from the beginning.

Pianos for Sale! Pianos for Sale.

MR. WILLIAM H. VAUGHAN, WELL known in our community as a Musician and Piano Tuner, is now appointed Agent for those splendid, Seven Octave, fine Rose Wood Pianos, built by C. M. Tremaine & Bro. These Pianos will be warranted for six years, and Mr. Vaughan is here ready to keep the instrument in perfect tune, if it should need it. He has at this time one of the Pianos at his residence, on Cabarrus Street, a little East of the N. C. R. R. Depot and would be glad to show it to any one who will call to see it.

These instruments took the premium at the Virginia State Fair, and without doubt are the best and cheapest instruments in the North or South.

Old Pianos taken in exchange for new ones, at a fair price. As I am confident that I can sell cheaper than any body else, I beg of my own people in the State to give me a call before purchasing elsewhere.

Piano tuning and Repairing done at shortest notice. Can make an old Piano as good almost as new, for a very low sum.

Address,
W. H. VAUGHAN,
mar 9-tf Box 280 Raleigh.

IT WILL BE REMEMBERED THAT THE Messrs. Tremaine Bro's. took the first premium at the Virginia State Fair on their celebrated Pianos. These gentlemen fully understand their business, being thorough musicians themselves. Call at the Store of E. VIA, 26, Fayetteville Street and examine one of the finest they have ever made.
